

High Dump Bucket

A high dump bucket is used when extra dump height clearance is required. The bucket pivots off a frame, which effectively lengthens the loader lift arm, and is tipped using the frames hydraulic cylinders.

Dump height clearances more than the loader's standard maximum lift pin height are easily achieved.

